DYSPEPSIA.

It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a disordered stomach.

The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and every organ must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. A diseased dyspepsia no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia is a mental power and a disordered stomach is a disordered mind.

Who knows what blessing may befall

if they but touch his garment's hem!

And once for them and all

Will Christ be born in Bethlehem!

"Alas! I have so much to do,"

"I cannot journey now with you,

But I will follow by and by."

The wise men followed and rode away.

Leaving the children all alone.

And pleading through that busy day,

"When may we see? When may we go?"

And while their cheeks flushed red and

They stood in a chorus sweet.

A RUSSIAN LEGEND.

The Russian peasants tell today

A legend old and dear to them,

How, when the winter was their way

To find the babe at Bethlehem.

They pointed to their cattle's rest

Beside a peasant's lowly door;

And all about their quest

They talked their sacred errand o'er.

"Come with us," said the eager three;

"Come seek with us the Heavenly Child;

What wonder honor can there be

For mortal, sinful and defiled?"

"And bid each child in Sunday clothes

Bring of his treasures the most rare,

Bundles of myth and wisdom's dross,

With outburst for the Christ King's bath."

"Who knows what blessing may befall

CROSS CURRENTS.

"You are such a very independent creature."

"I am not a creature, but an able bodied woman, with all my wits about me. Why should I make believe to be the weak kneed specimen of feminine foolishness that is your ideal woman?"

"Oh, never mind me, do just as you like," cried Mr. Bartlett, testily, as a voice from the inner room called. "What are you two quarreling about now?"

"It is only Mr. Bartlett talking nonsense, mother," said Agnes, gayly; "he thinks I can't go to town for a day's shopping without a chaperon."

"Is that all? Why, my dear Gus,

Agnes always goes about alone. Indeed, there is no one to go with her, so she has to; she has never come to any harm yet."

And Mrs. Oldham looked up appealingly from her sofa.

Mr. Bartlett promptly subsided, as he always did, when any remark of his had brought Mrs. Oldham's poverty into full view. Neither Agnes nor her mother ever troubled themselves about the narrowiness of their income, but it was a painful subject to Gus, who would willingly have sliced his abundance with them. He returned to the charge an hour later, when he and Agnes were out in the garden.

"You might let me come with you tomorrow," he said, persuasively; "I could see you over the crossings, at any rate."

"Oh, the policeman does that," answered Agnes, merrily. "You are dying to know what I do with myself, of course, but I don't mean to encourage you in inquisitive habits, so I shall go alone."

"I wish to goodness you had some one

FLORIE.

"If you were a millionaire this house would not be grand enough for you, and you would 'spoil it' by altering it, whereas now it is perfect."

Gus was pleased. He loved his home, and all that it represented. He loved all the old associations which had grown up in the 300 years since the Grange was built, and he was well aware that there were few families in England who could boast of such a line of worthy gentlemen as those from whom he was descended. Agnes did not care for any of these things, and was at that moment having a long conversation with Mr. Nugent about the evil results of foreign immigration in the east of London, a subject which interested her, but which Gus simply did not understand. He was satisfied if his tenants and laborers were well housed and fairly prosperous (and it must be owned that he was an admirable landlord), but the distress he had not had no pathos for him; it was no business of his, and he lacked the imagination which brought it all vividly before the energetic couple under the cedar tree.

"This evening Agnes stood at her window and looked out on the peaceful moonlight and the stars. "If I can get the busy human hive she had been hearing about. Then her face dimpled into a smile.

"Dear old Gus!" she said, "he has fallen into the trap, and they will be thoroughly happy. I don't think I know any one so fitted to be his wife as Florence. What a very successful day it had been, and how nice it was to get Agnes up to the Grange; and it never occurred to his innocent mind that he had not ex-

AN OLD SCHEME REVIVED IN A NEW FORM.

Four-fifths of the members of the Board of Supervisors of this county—that is to say, Messrs. Cady, Smith, Clark and Davis—in the face of the protests of the tax-payers from all over the county, seem determined to sell the Hall of Records property in Santa Rosa and to saddle the cost of a new structure, together with a new Jail which is not needed, on the already overburdened farmer and property-owner. Just what pressure has been brought to bear on the Supervisors to cause them to thus act in direct opposition to the wishes of their constituents in the language of Lord Dundreary, "is what no fellow can find out." During the past two years the Hall of Records and Jail scheme has been "downed" by popular clamor three or four times, but somehow or another, like Banquo's ghost, it refuses to stay down. On the closing day of the last session of the Supervisors their pet measure was again revived. Although it bobbed up serenely in a new shape, it is the same old thing. On that day Supervisor Smith, who ought to know better, introduced the following resolution which was adopted, the only dissenting vote being that of Supervisor Allen:

Resolved, That the lot on the corner of Exchange avenue and Fourth street, in the City of Santa Rosa, County of Sonoma, State of California, known as the Hall of Records property, and particularly described as follows, to-wit: Being lot 296 and north half of lot 295, in block 11 in said City of Santa Rosa, County of Sonoma, State of California, according to the plat of said city made by John A. Brewster, and being 48 feet more or less front on Exchange avenue and 120 feet more or less front on said Fourth street, is unsuitable for public purposes and is no longer required for public use.

It is therefore hereby ordered that the same be sold, together with all appurtenances thereunto belonging, at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, at the courthouse door in said City of Santa Rosa, on Monday, the 2d day of June, 1890, at 12 o'clock M. of the said day.

The Board of Supervisors hereby reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

Terms of sale cash, 20 per cent. of purchase price to accompany bid, balance of purchase price to be paid on the delivery of deed to purchaser; said deed to be executed at the option of said Board of Supervisors any time within one year from the date of confirmation of sale by said Board of Supervisors.

And it is further ordered that the County Clerk, as ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, give notice of said sale by publication in—newspaper published in the said City of Santa Rosa, for at least 30 days before said sale, and which said notice so published include the terms and conditions of said sale as prescribed in this order.

Mr. Clark then introduced the following which was carried by the same vote:

Resolved, That the lot on the corner of Third street and Hinton avenue, in the City of Santa Rosa, County of Sonoma, State of California, purchased two years ago for jail purposes, is too small for such purposes and that it is necessary to erect a new and suitable jail.

And as the County of Sonoma has secured a refusal until June 15, 1890, from Fred A. Prindle of the lot fronting on Third street and adjoining the Hinton avenue lot in rear and as the said Prindle lot, which is in every respect suitable for jail purposes, can be purchased for the sum of $5,500.

It is therefore ordered that the Clerk be and is hereby instructed to advertise that it is the intention of the Board to purchase the lot 60x140 feet on Third street adjoining the rear of the Hinton avenue lot for the purpose of building thereon a new county jail, said property being more particularly described as follows, to-wit: Lot 304 and west one-half of lot 305, block 14, Santa Rosa City, Sonoma County, California.

And further that this Board will meet on Monday, June 2, 1890, at 3 P. M., to consummate such purchase.

The Supervisors in thus overruling the wishes of the tax-payers of this county seem to forget that they are the servants of the people. They know by the numbers of protests that have been made against the scheme that it is anything but a popular measure with those who are taxed to foot the bills for what they conceive to be needless public improvements, and knowing this the people of Sonoma Township and other portions of the county would like to know what argument the advocates of the scheme have to offer for building a jail when there is ample jail facilities and erecting a Hall of Records when we have one that will accommodate the business of the county for the next ten years to come. The little joker in the whole business seems to be a real estate speculation by the county, if we should judge from the above resolution, in which the county is apt to play the part of the one-lunged Eastern sucker of which we read about, unless the people rise up in their might and stop the whole proceedings.

E. J. LIVERNASH, formerly of this paper, and John J. Livernash, his brother, have purchased the Healdsburg Enterprise and will conduct it as a Democratic paper. Ed. is a writer of ability, and although very radical in his views is nevertheless a conscientious and honest newspaper man. Healdsburg ought to congratulate itself on having the Livernash Bros., at the head of one of its newspapers, and the Enterprise should receive a liberal local patronage regardless of its politics, for under their management it is bound to help the town.

The Child's Life of Christ.

Introduced by Rev. J. L. Hewitt, D. D.

The writer of successful juvenile books can command almost his own price—in fact, such is the demand for this class of literature that many of the leading writers of the present day are devoting their talents exclusively in this direction. Everywhere people, authors and publishers alike, are beginning to realize the fact that it is of the utmost importance that good, wholesome books be placed in the hands of the young, and to-day hundreds of thousands of copies of this kind are sold yearly. Recognizing this fact the great London publishing house of Cassell & Co., one of the largest concerns of the kind in the world, whose establishments cover over an acre of ground, have been for months in the preparation of a "Life of Christ," which should be especially adapted for the young. That they have succeeded in producing a work of rare beauty and practical value in the household will be seen at a glance. Eminent writers have been engaged to prepare the letter press, a large force of the ablest artists have submitted designs for the illustrations and for the covers of the book, and out of all these the publishers have selected 300 as in their judgment worthy of a place in the book. The book contains over 700 pages, the print is exceptionally large and clear—as it should be—the paper finely colored, the binding elegant and appropriate, English silk cloth with gold and antique side stamp, a beautiful feature being a representation stamped in gold on the side of the book of the Savior blessing a little child by the roadside. It is impossible to estimate the real value of a book like this to every God-fearing man, woman or child. We seem to be actually present and viewing with our own eyes the wonderful panoramas of the Bible and the Bible lands; also all the remarkable events connected therewith. All classes of people, especially the young, will read this book with as much enthusiasm as they would the most thrilling story of adventure, and in doing so they will unconsciously acquire a thorough knowledge of the Bible. In this way thousands of young people will become induced to become Bible readers who would otherwise never look within the sacred pages.

We predict for this work the same phenomenal sale in this country that it has been accorded in England. It is not only a book that in our judgment will sell readily, but one which deserves to sell—the engravings alone, constituting as they do a complete Biblical art gallery, are worth the price of the book, and it ought to be in the hands of the children of every home in this country. The History Company, the well-known publishing house of 723 Market street, San Francisco, have, by special contract with Cassell & Co. direct, secured the sale of the work for the Pacific Coast. Agents and parties who desire to introduce the work should communicate at once with the History Company at the above address. We call attention to the advertisement in another column.

Darby's Porphyratic Fluid.
Use it in every sick-room. Will keep the atmosphere pure and wholesome, removing all bad odors from any source. Will destroy all disease germs, infection from all fevers and contagious diseases. The eminent physician, J. Marion Sims of New York, says: "I am convinced that Prof. Darby's Porphyratic Fluid is a most valuable disinfectant."

Be sure and take advantage of the pleasant weather and good roads to invite your wife, daughter or sweetheart for a drive to Agua Caliente Springs where the flowers bloom, the birds sing and the best of refreshments can be procured at any time of the day or any season of the year.

GOODNESS GRACIOUS.

The following item, which originally appeared in the Santa Rosa Democrat, concerning the recent municipal election in this place, is going the rounds of the county press:

Municipal elections were held in Healdsburg and Sonoma Monday. The contest in both places was warm and local politicians had their hands full. In Sonoma the Democrats had somewhat the best of the fight, the following tickets being elected: Trustees, M. Hardy, F. Mitzels, A. Weyl, M. Weyl, M. Dullotti; City Clerk, Judge Breitenbach; Treasurer, George Cornelius; Marshal, Geo. Sparks.

This is about the worst "bull" we have ever seen in print. Out of the eight names mentioned all are wrong but one. The names substituted for the right ones are regular tongue-twisters as the following will show:

M. Hardy should be C. McHarvey. F. Mitzels should be L. Litzels. A. Weyl should be V. Bulotti. Geo. Cornelius should be Geo. Cornelius. Sparks should be Geo. Sparks.

The above is laughable in the extreme and reminds us of a little story. Before the war the steamboat Oliver Ellsworth exploded her boilers on the Potomac river, occasioning a considerable loss of life. The Legislature was in session at the time and the Private Secretary of the Governor, who had received news of the disaster by a special courier, rushed into the Assembly Chamber in great excitement and addressing the chair said: "Sister Meeker and members of the Legislature the Elliver Ollsworth has biled her buster."

Look After the Little Ones.

S. S. S. is the remedy for children because it is a simple vegetable compound, prepared from the roots gathered in the forests, and contains no mineral at all nor any poison of any kind. It cures by eliminating the impurities of the blood, thus assisting nature.

If there is or has been any consumption in your family, you should give your children S. S. S. It will gently stimulate the action of the lungs, and enable nature to properly develop the child. If there is scrofula, you should not fail to give S. S. S. It is the only remedy that has ever cured this disease. For boils, pimples, blotches, etc., on children S. S. S. is superior to all other medicines. It acts gently, it forces out the impurities and builds up the child from the first dose.

Is terrific. Volcanic eruptions, cyclones, earthquakes are awfully and tremendously picturesque, but scarcely desirable to emulate.

SONOMA INDEX - TRIBUNE.

SONOMA, APRIL 23, 1890.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Hereafter obituaries, funeral notices, notices of marriages, etc., will be charged for at the rate of 10 cents per line. Communications upon matters of local or general interest selected. Communications designed to call attention to any matter of limited or individual interest will not be inserted unless paid for as an advertisement. The author's real name must accompany all communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. This rule will not be deviated from.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Occidental is a popular resort. The Union Hotel is now open. Have your carpets cleaned at Gross'. The Agua Caliente Springs Hotel is now open. The Occidental Hotel is a first-class resort. Schocken always has on hand fresh groceries. Axle grease the best and cheapest at Heydt & Cousens. Go to the Union Hotel for first-class accommodations. R. D. Moore of the Occidental keeps a first-class house. Go to H. Weyl's for Star flour. The best in the market. Old furniture made like new by Gross, eastside Plaza. For buggy and team harness go to Heydt & Cousens. Carriage trimming a specialty at Heydt & Cousens. The Occidental Hotel is fast becoming a popular place of resort. Heydt & Cousens make a specialty of repairing, cheap, durable and neat. You can be accommodated at the Union Hotel according to your means. Star flour at Weyl's is only $1.20 per sack; per barrel, $4.75. Guaranteed. The traveling public praise the Occidental Hotel, R. D. Moore proprietor. The Agua Caliente school children will hold a May Day picnic on the 1st of next month. The Union Hotel under the management of C. J. Barta is increasing in popularity every day. Robt. Clark, who has one of the prettiest farms in the upper part of the valley, is plowing his vineyard. E. P. Thomsen contemplates the erection of a fine modern residence on his farm near Agua Caliente the coming summer. E. L. Steiger of Johannsburg Farm has some of the finest imported Holstein cattle on his place that we have seen for many a day. A large force of men are engaged in plowing and setting out new vineyards on the Heart place, under the management of Dr. Latham. Sonoma Grove No. 75, U. A. O. D. will hold an election of officers next Saturday evening. The membership of this order in this place is nearly 60. Mrs. Sarah Stevenot of Calaveras county has purchased from the Sonoma Valley Bank the old Perkins vineyard and orchard located in the western suburbs of Sonoma. The consideration is not known. J. Sullivan, charged with threats against life, was acquitted in Judge Zane's Court, Glen Ellen, Monday. The defendant was represented by J. K. Luttrell. The verdict gives general satisfaction on that way. C. F. Badger's store at Agua Caliente is doing a prosperous business. The residents up that way find no occasion to go to the city for their groceries, as things can be had as cheap at that store as in San Francisco. The handsome modern rural retreat of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Haven of Oakland, which nestles in the hills a few miles northwest of Sonoma, and which has been unoccupied the past winter, will be occupied by the family in a few weeks. For the delicate and aged and all in whom the vital current is impoverished and sluggish, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best tonic. It restores the wasted tissues, and imparts to the system surprising elasticity and vigor. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle. Mr. A. A. Vallejo, teacher of Spanish and music, has been quite successful in forming classes in this place. Hereafter he will teach in Union Hall every Friday evening. Young ladies who so desire will be taught at the residence of Mrs. Haraszhly. The Sonoma Dramatic Club will give a musical and literary entertainment at Union Hall on Tuesday evening, May 6th. The proceeds will be expended for a flagstaff and flag for our public school house. After the entertainment there will be a social dance. C. Aguilon has surveyed off a portion of his land near the depot into town lots, which he will soon offer for sale. The tract contains about 120 lots 90x136 feet in size. The location is a very choice one and the lots will no doubt find a ready sale. The Kohler & Frohling vineyards, under the excellent management of E. E. Outley, will soon be the finest in the State. Nearly 150 acres of resistant vines have been planted out the past two or three years and many other improvements were noted during a recent visit. On the place is one of the largest wine cellars in Sonoma Valley.

HOME FOR FEEBLE MINDED.

Sonoma Valley Stone vs. San Rafael Brick.
The question that is now agitating the minds of the Directors of the Home for Feeble Minded Children is whether to use Sonoma Valley stone in constructing the main building of the institution or brick imported from San Rafael brick-yards. At a meeting held several weeks ago it was decided to use the latter, but since then a number of the members of the commission after giving the matter additional consideration have come to the conclusion that it will be to the advantage of the State to use the building stone which abounds only a short distance from the proposed site. These argue and sensibly, too, that the stone would be more enduring and would save the State thousands of dollars. It is thought that the matter will come up for reconsideration at an early date and that a majority of the directors will be prepared to favor the building stone of this valley.
"The Bold Sejo Boys"
Battery G, Second Artillery, N. G. C., Capt. Thos. F. O'Neil commanding, have signified a willingness to pay Sonoma a visit some day next month if suitable arrangements can be made for their reception. They will come prepared to pay all their own bills. Now that the Sonoma Band has been reorganized it is thought the band boys will take the matter in hand and endeavor to entertain this excellent military company with music and a grand military ball in the evening. It was with this object in view that Messrs. Mulvey and Turley of this place waited upon the members of the band at the Pavilion last Tuesday evening and placed the matter in their hands. Capt. O'Neil is well-known to the people of this valley and he should be encouraged to bring his company to Sonoma for an outing. The visit will be one to be remembered in after years. It is to be hoped the Band will take the matter in hand for if the company is not furnished martial music they will be compelled to go elsewhere.
Our Streets.
It may not be generally known, but it is nevertheless a fact, outside kickers and mule-belted friends to the contrary notwithstanding, that the streets of Sonoma during the storms of last winter were in better condition than those of any town in Sonoma county. At the present time our principal thoroughfares would be a credit to any city. Before people complain they ought to visit and inspect the streets of other towns. There are always a few chronic and fault finders, however, in every community. These if given the earth would still "to the moon complain," and covet the sun and stars.
Marriage Bells.
Miss Eva Sydnor of this place and Mr. Walter Rideout of San Francisco will be married tomorrow by Rev. E. H. King at the residence of the bride's step-father, Mr. John Tiven. The wedding will be private, only relatives of the contracting parties will be present. The bride's cake for the occasion was made by Mr. Tiven with his own hands, he having in his younger days served an apprenticeship as a baker.
The New Transfer Boat of the S. F. and N. P. Railway.
The large transfer boat being built at Tiburon by the Donahue railroad people will be launched on the 5th of May. In addition to being used for freight transportation the new transfer boat will be improvised to carry picnic trains across the Bay from San Francisco to Tiburon both coming and going.
A Temblor.
There was a sharp shock of earthquake felt in this place on Thursday morning last at 3:30 o'clock. Clocks were stopped, windows rattled and many people were aroused from deep slumber by the vibrations, which were from east to west.
Prof. Brown has fitted up a studio in Union Hall, where he will teach the ladies of Sonoma Valley the art of painting, an accomplishment every lady should have. He has also formed a class for children in drawing. The Professor comes very highly recommended and is a gentleman in every sense of the term. His terms are extremely reasonable.
The appraisers of the estate of the late Henry Winkle, Messrs. Carl Dreel, F. Grothaus and L. Adler, met yesterday afternoon to make an appraisal of the estate.
For nearly half a century Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been the most popular cough remedy in the world. The constantly increasing demand for this remedy proves it to be the very best specific for colds, coughs and all diseases of the throat and lungs.

THE CITY TRUSTEES.

Newly-Elected Officers Sworn In.
R. A. Poppe Chosen President.
Appointment of the Committee on Streets, Plaza, Etc.
The Board of Trustees met in special session last Monday evening to canvass the election returns and for the transaction of other business. A full Board was present.
Clerk Breitenbach delivered to the President the package containing the tally lists of the late election, which were duly examined and accepted.
Trustee Poppe thereupon offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That the gentlemen named below, candidates for their respective offices set opposite their names of all the votes cast for the office for which they were candidates be and are hereby duly declared elected to such offices, to-wit:
Henry Weyl, Trustee.
Louis Litzius, Trustee.
V. Bulotti, Trustee.
G. H. H. Cornelius, Treasurer.
F. Breitenbach, Clerk.
G. W. Sparks, Marshal.
The Clerk then administered the oath of office to the newly-elected officers. It was then announced that the members would ballot for one of their number for President of the Board, which was done with the following result:
Ed. Wegner, three votes.
R. A. Poppe, three votes.
The latter having received a majority of the votes cast was declared by the Clerk duly elected President of the Board.
The new President on taking the chair thanked the members of the Board for the honor conferred upon him and stated that at the present time he had no suggestions or recommendations to make to the Board, but would do so at the next regular meeting in May, at which time he would also announce the several committees.
After the bonds of the newly-elected Clerk, Marshal and Treasurer had been approved by the President and no further business appearing the Board adjourned.
SPECIAL SESSION.
It having been urged upon the President to appoint the various committees immediately, a special session was called Tuesday afternoon for the purpose, a full Board and Clerk Breitenbach being present. The following Committees were appointed:
Finance, Revenue and Taxation—Ed. Wegner and Louis Litzius.
Ordinance and Legislation—L. Litzius and Henry Weyl.
Buildings and Cemetery—H. Weyl and V. Bulotti.
Streets and Plaza—V. Bulotti and Ed. Wegner.
Death of an Old Resident.
R. Sneed, who has resided in this valley since 1850, died at his home near this place Tuesday, aged 84 years.
Deceased located near Sonoma forty years ago and has resided in the house where he died continuously ever since. It was the dying request of Mr. Sneed that his funeral be as plain as possible. There was to be no hearse and the coffin was to be of plain redwood. This he requested should be made by a relative, W. C. Goodman of Shellville. The grave was to be dug by a relative also, M. P. Akers. The request of the old gentleman was carried out to the letter. His remains were interred in the German-street cemetery last Thursday, being followed to their final resting place by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The deceased was born in Patrick county, Va., in 1806.
Watson Debating Society.
The closing debate for the term of the Watson Debating Society was held on Friday of last week. The question debated was, "Resolved, That Hannibal was greater than Alexander." The debaters for the affirmative were Zoe Clark and Hartley Gottenberg, the negative side of the proposition being argued by Clara Cheney and Chester Smith. Both sides acquitted themselves admirably. Upon being put to a vote the members decided in favor of the negative.
Accident to a Young Lady.
Miss Belle Landsborough of Shellville was thrown from a buggy on Wednesday evening near the railroad depot at that place and rendered insensible. Dr. Davis is the attending physician. The extent of the young lady's injuries we are unable to obtain.
Leg Broken.
Dr. Davis of this place was summoned to attend Mrs. Munn, living near Glen Ellen, yesterday. The lady is said to have broken a leg by being thrown from a buggy.
If you want to buy a town lot read the advertisement of B. Toroni, which appears in another column.

THE HOTEL DEAD BEAT.

He Gets in His Work in Sonoma and Comes to Grief.
Patrick Cox made his appearance in this place about a month ago and took up his abode at the Sonoma House. Here he feasted and waxed fat until the fore part of this week, when he suddenly disappeared without settling his bill. Constable Sparks was notified and having other business to attend to he deputized M. A. Flynn, the proprietor of the hotel, to hunt up and arrest the absconding piebiter. On Tuesday Mr. Flynn, arrested his man in San Francisco and brought him to Sonoma and lodged him in jail. The following day the offending boarder was arraigned before Judge Cheney and a jury, charged with defrauding a hotel keeper. The jury was composed of the following gentlemen: H. Weyl, J. A. Perkins, L. Modini, G. W. McIntyre, Jos. Anderson, E. H. Pauli, D. M. Eschbach, Jas. McDonnell, Jr., J. B. Small, F. A. Riser, Jas. Martin and L. Adler. After hearing the testimony the prisoner was convicted and sentenced by Judge Cheney to pay a fine of $20 or to be imprisoned in the County Jail for twenty days. He chose the latter alternative and was taken to Santa Rosa by Constable Sparks on Thursday.
The conviction was had under the provisions of a law passed by the last Legislature entitled: "An Act to add a new section to the Penal Code to be known as Section 537 relating to defrauding proprietors of and managers of hotels, inns, restaurants, boarding houses and lodging houses." The law reads as follows:
Sec. 1. Any person who obtains any food or accommodations at an inn or boarding house without paying therefor, with an intent to defraud the proprietor or manager thereof or who obtains credit at an inn or boarding house by the use of any false pretenses, or who, after obtaining credit or accommodations at any inn or boarding house absconds and surreptitiously removes his baggage therefrom without paying for his board or accommodations is guilty of a misdemeanor.
PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
El. Wegner visited the city on Friday of last week.

SCROFULA RAFFLE!
Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck, which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.
How Can It Be CURED?
By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.
"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to foot. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. B.
